

Best Practices in Handling Construction Payment Disputes

PS&H attorneys Drew Colby and Brian Fishman lead a webinar titled Best Practices in Handling Construction Payment Disputes, hosted by Lorman.

The intention of the webinar is to provide best practices to avoid and minimize payment disputes. During the course of the program, topics include how to spot toxic projects, protecting your company through key contract terms, evaluating and managing risk, and deploying successful strategies to resolve payment disputes on your terms.

For more details and to purchase a copy of the webinar, click here.

Date Created

March 12, 2020