

Partridge Snow & Hahn's Daniel E. Burgoyne to Present, "Modifications and Restructuring, Forbearance Agreements" on NBI Webinar

Description

PROVIDENCE, RI, December 6, 2024 – Partridge Snow & Hahn (PSH), a full-service business law and litigation firm, announces that Attorney Daniel E. Burgoyne will present, "Modifications and Restructuring, Forbearance Agreements," on the National Business Institute (NBI) webinar, "Commercial Real Estate Loan Workouts: Top Risks and Remedies." The webinar takes place on Friday, December 20 and will explore types of commercial real estate loan defaults, risk mitigation factors, and available workout solutions.

Burgoyne serves as Counsel in PSH's Litigation Practice Group, focusing on commercial litigation and insolvency. He has extensive experience representing banks and other lenders in loan workouts, bankruptcy and receivership proceedings, foreclosure of collateral and other affirmative recovery actions, and defense of claims against lenders. He has developed relationships with many area professionals, such as auctioneers, appraisers, accountants, and other attorneys, who are often necessary to successfully resolve troubled loans for his lender clients.

The NBI provides Continuing Legal Education (CLE) courses for attorneys, focusing on practical, skill-based training that can be directly applied to their legal practice; essentially offering lawyers access to online courses designed to enhance their expertise in various legal areas, with a strong emphasis on real-world application and valuable resources like forms and how-to guides.
