

PSH Partner Elizabeth O. Manchester Presents at Bryant University Wealth Management Series

Description

PROVIDENCE, RI, July 29, 2025 – Partridge Snow & Hahn (PSH) Partner Elizabeth O. Manchester will join the upcoming installment of Bryant University's Wealth Management Series at The Dunes Club in Narragansett, Rhode Island on Wednesday, July 30. Manchester will address the key points of the One Big Beautiful Bill Act related to the financial, wealth, and tax sectors, and will discuss how it will shape charitable giving now and in the future. A special focus will be given to the bill's impact on nonprofits, family foundations, and philanthropy in general. Registration is available here.

As Chair of PSH's Nonprofit & Tax-Exempt Practice Group, Manchester represents tax-exempt entities, centered on compliance, formation, charitable gift planning issues, and best practices. She has extensive experience assisting institutions with the inception of planned giving programs, as well as corporate governance matters and maintenance of tax-exempt status. Manchester advises charitable institutions and institutions of higher learning about tax benefits available to donors, to assist in discussions with donors to appropriately advance the organization's mission. Serving as external general counsel for public charities and private foundations, Manchester advises nonprofits regarding board education and training, fiduciary obligation advice, compliance, donor representation, endowment fund management, finance, Form 990, reporting issues, governance, joint ventures, affiliations and litigation prevention. In addition, she advises nonprofits regarding managing bequests and complex gifts for organizations, mergers and acquisitions, obtaining and maintaining tax exemptions, policies, political and lobbying restrictions and tax.

Bryant University's Wealth Management Series features a variety of speakers, all with different viewpoints and experience to speak on various topics that are not only relevant but provide an educational and practical approach that is different from other local networking groups. This new professional networking and learning series is geared towards alumni and their peers in the wealth management industry.
