Description

PROVIDENCE, RI, July 24, 2025 – Partridge Snow & Hahn (PSH), a full-service business law and litigation firm, announces that attorneys Elizabeth O. Manchester, Jay R. Peabody, and Russell J. Stein will present a webinar on the One Big Beautiful Bill Act (OBBBA) on Thursday, July 31 in collaboration with accounting firm Waldron H. Rand & Company, P.C. Registration is available here.

Tax experts from PSH and Waldron Rand will provide an overview of the key tax provisions and strategic planning opportunities of the OBBBA that impact high-net-worth individuals, businesses, and tax-exempt organizations. The webinar will cover the following topics:

- Bonus depreciation
- Opportunity zones
- Qualified small business stock
- Estate tax changes
- State and local tax deductions (SALT cap)
- Treatment of research and development costs

As Chair of PSH's Nonprofit & Tax-Exempt Practice Group, Manchester represents tax-exempt entities, centered on compliance, formation, charitable gift planning issues, and best practices. She has extensive experience assisting institutions with the inception of planned giving programs, as well as corporate governance matters and maintenance of tax-exempt status. Manchester advises charitable institutions and institutions of higher learning about tax benefits available to donors, to assist in discussions with donors to appropriately advance the organization's mission. Serving as external general counsel for public charities and private foundations, Manchester advises nonprofits regarding board education and training, fiduciary obligation advice, compliance, donor representation, endowment fund management, finance, Form 990, reporting issues, governance, joint ventures, affiliations and litigation prevention. In addition, she advises nonprofits regarding managing bequests and complex gifts for organizations, mergers and acquisitions, obtaining and maintaining tax exemptions, policies, political and lobbying restrictions and tax.

Peabody is Co-Managing Partner of the firm and a leading real estate attorney with extensive experience advising clients on all aspects of commercial real estate. He represents sponsors, operators, and investors in the acquisition, development, financing, and leasing of projects nationwide. Peabody regularly counsels regional and national owners and developers through every phase of complex transactions, including office, industrial, retail, and large-scale mixed-use developments. As outside general counsel to a range of privately held businesses, he also provides strategic advice on entity formation, ownership structure, succession planning, and business operations. Peabody serves as Chair of the firm's Real Estate Practice Group.

Stein advises businesses on mergers and acquisitions and general corporate matters, and the intricacies of the U.S. Federal and State tax regulations. He has extensive experience counseling nonprofit organizations, charities, and private foundations on a variety of issues ranging from start-up organizational matters through mergers and dissolutions. He provides guidance on joint ventures and partnerships between nonprofit and for-profit entities, including advice regarding state regulations and registration requirements involving commercial co-venture agreements.
