

PSH Continues Philanthropy On Tap Series With Boston Session

Description

PROVIDENCE, RI, September 25, 2025 – Partridge Snow & Hahn (PSH), a full-service business law and litigation firm, announces the third and final session of the Philanthropy on Tap series, an educational and networking program designed to highlight how strategic giving can create meaningful impact for both businesses and the community. Registration is available here.

The upcoming session will be held at 4:30pm on Wednesday, November 5 at Roundhead Brewing Company in Boston, MA. PSH partners Elizabeth O. Manchester, Brian J. Reilly, and Russell J. Stein will lead a discussion on the strategic side of philanthropy, including:

- Structuring impactful giving: co-ventures, employee match programs, and corporate donations
- Corporate foundations: benefits and best practices
- Exit planning: tax-smart charitable strategies and private foundation options.

A networking reception will follow the educational programming.

As Chair of the PSH Nonprofit & Tax-Exempt Practice Group, Manchester represents tax-exempt entities, centered on compliance, formation, charitable gift planning issues and best practices. She has extensive experience assisting institutions with the inception of planned giving programs, as well as corporate governance matters and maintenance of tax-exempt status. Manchester advises charitable institutions and institutions of higher learning about tax benefits available to donors, to assist in discussions with donors to appropriately advance the organization's mission.

As Chair of PSH's Nonprofit & Tax-Exempt Practice Group, Manchester represents tax-exempt entities, centered on compliance, formation, charitable gift planning issues, and best practices.
