

Melissa Darigan has been recognized as one of the Top 250 Women in Litigation

July 11, 2013 –

Congratulations to Melissa Darigan, (med@psh.com) chair of the Firm's Litigation practice, who has been recognized for the second year in a row as one of the Top 250 Women in Litigation, published by Legal Media Group. The Top 250 Women in Litigation identifies 250 leading female trial attorneys across all 50 US states and the District of Columbia. "Melissa and her team provide our clients with the highest quality of legal representation. She is most deserving of this recognition of her outstanding work and results," said David M. Gilden, Managing Partner.

A spinoff of Benchmark Litigation, the publication's rankings are the result of extensive interviews with private practice lawyers and in-house counsel in the litigators' respective jurisdictions. The Benchmark editorial staff developed the list of featured women based largely on peer reviews conducted during the research cycle for Benchmark, which is conducted annually between February and June.
