

Partnership and Closely Held Business Conflicts in the Age of COVID-19

Description

A team of attorneys from Partridge Snow & Hahn will be presenting Partnership and Closely Held Business Conflicts in the Age of COVID-19 at a virtual event hosted by Venture Cafe & District Hall Providence, on Friday, November 20th at 12pm.

The presenting attorneys include experienced litigation and business attorneys discussing how business owners can set themselves up to avoid or mitigate conflicts with shareholders, partners, employees, and vendors as they enter 2021. They will outline steps that can be taken now to help prevent legal conflicts moving forward, as well as, the best practices for mitigating conflict when it does occur.

Presenting attorneys for this event include:

- Russell J. Stein
- Daniel E. Burgoyne
- Christopher C. Cassara
- Suzanne M. Elovecky
- Brian J. Reilly

A pdf of the presentation can be viewed here.

Date Created

November 20, 2020