
Partridge Snow & Hahn Adds Four New Partners in 2022

Description

Partridge Snow & Hahn (PS&H) is pleased to announce the elevation of four new partners to the firm. Congratulations to Christian F. Capizzo, Suzanne M. Elovecky, Elizabeth O. Manchester, and Russell J. Stein.

“The addition of these excellent attorneys to our partnership strengthens our firm, increasing our representation for clients in environmental and land use matters, energy, complex litigation, nonprofit, tax, mergers and acquisitions and corporate law. Their individual areas of expertise and diverse backgrounds add to and compliment the firm’s traditions of excellence and exemplary client service in our Providence and Massachusetts offices,” said PS&H Managing Partner Howard Merten. “It is a great day for the firm and our clients. The future is bright.”

Date Created
January 1, 2022