

Partridge Snow & Hahn Bolsters Real Estate Practice With Addition of Brian G. Cafferty

Description

BOSTON, MA, May 29, 2026 – Partridge Snow & Hahn (PSH), a full-service business law and litigation firm, announces that Brian G. Cafferty has joined the firm as counsel in the Real Estate practice group. Cafferty brings decades of experience advising clients on complex commercial real estate, development, construction, finance, and governance matters.

Cafferty's practice spans acquisitions and dispositions, commercial leasing, zoning and land use, corporate structuring, environmental compliance, and real estate finance. He has extensive experience supporting the development, construction, financing, and leasing of industrial, suburban office, retail, and multi-family projects, including redevelopment and brownfield sites. He regularly advises owners, developers, lenders, and project stakeholders on construction-related matters, including contract negotiation, risk allocation, project planning, and dispute avoidance.

PSH Co-Managing Partner Jay R. Peabody said, "Brian brings exceptional depth and versatility to our real estate team. His broad experience advising clients through complex transactions, development projects, and regulatory challenges will be an asset to both our clients and our firm."

Cafferty said, "I'm excited to join PSH and collaborate with such a talented and respected group of attorneys. The firm's national reputation, client-first approach, and strong real estate platform make this an excellent fit for my practice."

Cafferty earned his J.D. from Boston College Law School, an M.A. from the University of Virginia, and a B.A. from the College of the Holy Cross. Prior to joining PSH, he practiced at large national firms, boutique commercial real estate firms, and as in-house counsel. He is admitted to practice in Massachusetts, New Hampshire, and Maine.
