

Partridge Snow & Hahn Joins Boston Bar Association as a Sponsor Firm

Description

BOSTON, MA – The Boston Bar Association is pleased to welcome Partridge Snow & Hahn (PSH) as a sponsor firm. PSH joins the BBA's growing network of over 15,000 members and 140 institutional partners, including law firms, legal departments, government agencies, non-profits, and law schools.

As a sponsor firm, PSH will support the BBA's mission to advance the highest standards of excellence for the legal profession, foster a diverse and inclusive professional community, facilitate access to justice, and serve the community at large.

"Becoming a BBA sponsor firm reflects our dedication to supporting initiatives that enhance the legal profession and provide valuable resources for our attorneys and clients alike," said PSH Co-Managing Partners Paul M. Kessimian and Jay R. Peabody in a joint statement. "For our Boston office, this partnership offers exceptional opportunities for engagement, professional development, and advocacy, while also reinforcing our broader mission of commitment to service and thought leadership throughout the region."

PSH, a full-service business law and litigation firm, opened its Boston office in 2014 to expand its geographic reach and meet growing client demand in the region. The firm is committed to working collaboratively with clients to develop a deep understanding of their various industries, objectives, and unique ways of working to help advance business goals and solve legal challenges. With offices in Massachusetts and Rhode Island, the firm focuses on key areas of law: corporate & business, including M&A, employment, tax, and nonprofit; real estate, including commercial financing, energy, environmental, and land use; and complex commercial litigation.

Date Created

January 10, 2025