PS&H Partner Alicia Samolis Elected to the Rhode Island Historical Society Board of Trustees

Description

Partridge Snow & Hahn Partner, Alicia Samolis, was elected to serve on the Board of Trustees of the Rhode Island Historical Society by a unanimous vote at their annual meeting held via Zoom on November 17, 2020.

The Rhode Island Historical Society is a leading contributor to the Rhode Island tourism and education sector. It is the only state-wide history organization in Rhode Island, operating two museums, a research center, two historic houses, and serving as steward to four historical land parcels.

Alicia will serve as a Trustee for the initial term of three years. Click to view the 2020 Official Board Election Proxy.
