

PSH Partner Allison L. Fleet Selected as a Providence Business News 40 Under Forty Honoree

Description

PROVIDENCE, RI, June 10, 2025 – Partridge Snow & Hahn (PSH), a full-service business law and litigation firm, announces that partner Allison L. Fleet was selected as a 2025 Providence Business News “40 Under Forty” honoree. Fleet was selected based on her exceptional work in real estate and commercial finance law, and her involvement in the community.

The 40 Under Forty Awards program recognizes outstanding young professionals in Rhode Island and Southeastern Massachusetts who are excelling in their industries. Fleet and fellow honorees will be recognized at an awards celebration at the Aldrich Mansion on July 17, and will be featured in a special report published on July 19. “Allie exemplifies the next generation of leadership at our firm. Her sharp legal acumen, steady judgment, and unwavering commitment to her practice have earned the trust and admiration of colleagues and clients. She brings not only technical excellence to her work, but also the integrity and professionalism that define our firm’s values,” said PSH Co-Managing Partners Paul M. Kessimian and Jay R. Peabody in a joint statement.

A Real Estate and Commercial Finance lawyer, Fleet works closely with real estate developers, owners, and operators, as well as the owners and executives of small and mid-sized businesses with property portfolios across New England and beyond. Fleet handles commercial real estate construction and development projects from start-to-finish, including acquisitions and dispositions, financing, contracting, and leasing. In her corporate finance practice, Fleet negotiates a range of commercial finance transactions representing both lenders and borrowers. She routinely handles asset-based lending transactions, including traditional working capital, mortgage lending, lines of credit, and equipment loan facilities, among others.
