

PSH Partner Amy Oakley Named a 2025 Woman of Influence in Commercial Real Estate by ALM/GlobeSt.com

Description

PROVIDENCE, RI, May 7, 2025 – Partridge Snow & Hahn (PSH), a regional business law and litigation firm, announces that partner Amy T.M. Oakley has been named a 2025 Woman of Influence in the Commercial Real Estate (CRE) Legal Counsel category by ALM/GlobeSt.com. This annual award celebrates the significant contributions of women in the commercial real estate industry across the country. Oakley was selected for her exceptional work leading complex commercial real estate matters. The honorees will be recognized at an award ceremony in Denver, Colorado in July. The full list of honorees is found here.

Oakley's practice focuses on finance, commercial real estate and tax credit finance. Her experience is unique in that she has acted as counsel on all sides of development projects, representing developers, lenders, bridge lenders, investors and syndicators so she understands well each party's goals and how to lead effectively and efficiently to get the deal closed. Oakley's expertise spans 500+ loan transactions, $1.5B+ in tax credit syndications, and landmark developments across multiple states. Over her career, she has represented more than 20 financial institutions in all areas of commercial finance. She has experience with major housing developments, shopping centers, hotels, condominiums and other large scale development projects, and her work has impacted development projects that revitalize historic sites, create market-rate and affordable housing projects, and transform contaminated properties into usable spaces.

"We are incredibly proud to see Amy recognized with this prestigious honor," said PSH Co-Managing Partners Paul M. Kessimian and Jay R. Peabody in a joint statement. "This well-deserved recognition reflects Amy's deep expertise and leadership in the field, along with her unwavering commitment to client service and to advancing the commercial real estate industry. She continues to set the standard for excellence."
