

PS&H Partner Michael Gamboli Speaks at ALSB Annual Conference

Partridge Snow & Hahn Partner, Michael Gamboli, will speak at this year's Academy of Legal Studies in Business (ALSB) Annual Conference on August 4, 2020.

While the ALSB Annual Conference usually rotates to different cities throughout the United States, this year's conference is a virtual event. The conference is a time for ALSB members from all over the world to come together and share their experiences and learn about and explore topics relevant to business legal studies. Presentations, workshops and several networking events are an integral part of the meeting.

The Program Chair, Robert Bird, states in his welcome letter, "The theme of our conference is Managing Disruption. Selection of this as the conference theme has become more relevant than anyone could have imagined. Higher education is facing enormous pressure to adapt to changing circumstances. Legal studies faculty who teach in business schools have an important role to play, and it is my hope that the conference will offer valuable information for attendees from a wide variety of perspectives."

Michael will serve as the section guest speaker in the academic breakout session to be held at 5 pm EST on August 4, 2020, Employment Law Section Meeting.
