

PSH Partner Michael L. Mineau Presents at Roger Williams University Real Estate Summer Residency

Description

PROVIDENCE, RI, June 3, 2025 – Partridge Snow & Hahn (PSH) Partner Michael L. Mineau presented at the inaugural Roger Williams University Real Estate Summer Residency, May 30. The three-day event brought together graduate students from the university's low-residency master's program for hands-on learning through site visits, expert talks, networking sessions, and workshops. Mineau participated in the panel discussion, "Careers in Real Estate: Roles & Routes," which explored various entry points, skill sets, and pathways within the real estate industry.

As a Partner in PSH's Transactional and Litigation Practice Groups, Mineau focuses primarily on commercial real estate transactions, land use and development, and real estate-related litigation. In his transactional practice, he represents real estate developers, owners, landlords, tenants, investors, and joint venturers in Rhode Island and Massachusetts in all phases of deals, including acquisitions and dispositions, leasing, due diligence, financing, drafting and negotiating easements and restrictions, reviewing and clearing title, and zoning and land use issues.

In his litigation practice, Mineau focuses on real estate-related litigation, including, but not limited to, boundary and title disputes, adverse possession and prescriptive easement cases, breach of contract suits, specific performance claims, requests for declaratory and injunctive relief, condemnation and takings cases, land use litigation, and zoning appeals. He has extensive litigation and first-chair trial experience (jury and non-jury) and has represented clients in appeals to the Rhode Island Supreme Court. Mineau's trial experience has included trials in the Rhode Island Superior Court and Massachusetts Land Court.
