

PSH Partner Russell J. Stein Named a 2026 “Go-To Lawyer: Taxation” by Massachusetts Lawyers Weekly

Description

BOSTON, MA, April 27, 2026 – Partridge Snow & Hahn (PSH), a full-service business law and litigation firm, announces that Partner Russell J. Stein was named a 2026 “Go-To Lawyer: Taxation” by Massachusetts Lawyers Weekly. Stein and fellow honorees are featured in the publication’s April 27th edition.

“Go To” Lawyers are nominated by their peers and chosen by a panel from Massachusetts Lawyers Weekly. Honorees are selected for demonstrating in-depth knowledge in their field and deep experience with a record of success, according to the publication.

“We congratulate Russell on this well-deserved distinction. His judgment, dedication, and ability to distill complex tax issues into clear, strategic guidance make him a trusted advisor,” said PSH Co-Managing Partners Paul M. Kessimian and Jay R. Peabody in a joint statement.

Stein focuses his practice on advising businesses on mergers and acquisitions and general corporate matters, the intricacies of U.S. Federal and State tax regulations, and advising nonprofit charities and charitable foundations on Federal tax regulations and State charitable regulations as well as general business matters. He has extensive experience counseling businesses on business and tax matters relating to corporate mergers & acquisitions, real estate development and investment fund structuring, tax planning, business restructurings, partnership taxation and Opportunity Zone Investments. He has considerable experience in drafting partnership agreements, reviewing and negotiating merger agreements, and advising companies on tax structuring regarding international holdings.

Additionally, Stein advises nonprofit organizations, charities, and private foundations on a variety of issues ranging from start-up organizational matters through mergers and dissolutions. He provides guidance on joint ventures and partnerships between nonprofit and for-profit entities, including advice regarding state regulations and registration requirements involving commercial co-venture agreements.
