

Thomas Enright has been Elected Partner of the Firm

We are pleased to announce that Thomas J. Enright has been elected Partner of the Firm. “Tom’s litigation and contract negotiation experience along with his commitment to excellence makes him a valuable addition to the partnership,” said David M. Gilden, Managing Partner.

Tom represents the interests of various commercial entities and individuals before state and federal courts in Rhode Island and Massachusetts. He concentrates his practice on banking litigation, land use and zoning, and municipal law. Tom resides in our Providence office.

Date Created

January 1, 2015