

Travis McDermott Presents in the Rhode Island Marijuana Business Law Series

Description

PS&H partner, Travis McDermott, is presenting A Crash Course in Licensing, Regulatory Compliance and Federal and State Enforcement, as the first part of a 3-course online seminar series titled Rhode Island Marijuana Business Law 2021. The full series, hosted by the National Business Institute (NBI), provides practical and timely guidance for attorneys advising marijuana-related businesses in Rhode Island. This first course is offered on Wednesday, June 23rd, from 2:00 pm – 4:15 pm ET.

Register here for Section I: The Legalization Landscape / Regulatory Compliance and Federal and State Enforcement

This course, designed for attorneys, covers state licensing and regulatory challenges for marijuana-related businesses operating in Rhode Island. Travis will discuss the implications of the latest legalization information at the the federal level.

The agenda includes:

- The Federal and State Legalization Landscape in 2021
- Regulatory Areas of Concern in Rhode Island
- The Rhode Island Permitting and Licensing Process

Credit for the course is CLE – 2.0.

Register here for the full 3-course Online Seminar Series, Rhode Island Marijuana Business Law 2021

Travis is a partner in the firm's Cannabis Advisory Group and he frequently posts to the firm's Cannabis Advisory Blog. Travis also authored the chapter on Rhode Island cannabis law in the 2021 Meritas publication, Cannabis Guide for the USA & Canada.

Date Created

June 23, 2021