

Brian G. Cafferty

Counsel

Brian Cafferty brings decades of experience advising clients on complex commercial real estate, development, finance, and governance matters. His practice spans acquisitions and dispositions, commercial leasing, zoning and land use, corporate structuring, environmental compliance, and real estate finance, with a strong focus on helping clients navigate sophisticated transactions and operational challenges.

Brian has extensive experience supporting the development, financing, and leasing of industrial, suburban office, retail, and multi-family projects, including redevelopment and brownfield sites. He is particularly knowledgeable in matters involving Chapter 91 filled tidelands and Chapter 21E hazardous waste compliance, providing practical guidance on regulatory, environmental, and risk-management considerations tied to complex real estate assets.

Over the course of his career, Brian has practiced at large national firms, boutique commercial real estate firms, and as in-house counsel, giving him a well-rounded perspective on both legal strategy and business operations. He has successfully represented clients in various courts and regularly advises on operational, governance, and compliance matters connected to real estate ownership, development, and investment.

He is admitted to practice in Massachusetts, New Hampshire, and Maine.
