

JAY R. PEABODY

Co-Managing Partner

jpeabody@psh.com | 401-861-8200

Jay is Co-Managing Partner of the Firm.

Jay is a transactional lawyer with broad corporate experience. He also represents sponsors, operators and investors with all aspects of commercial real estate. Clients are attracted to Jays even keel demeanor in the pursuit of complex matters, along with his ability to deliver pragmatic solutions.

Acting as outside general counsel, Jay represents many privately-held businesses in diverse industries. He has extensive experience providing advice regarding transactions, shareholder agreements, buy-sell agreements, business formation, structure and strategic planning. One of the greatest compliments Jay received from a client is that they work with him because he always gets the deal done.

As Chair of the firms Transactional Practice, Jay regularly represents regional and national owners and developers in all phases of commercial real estate transactions, from planning through development and leasing. He also facilitates complex financings of office, industrial, retail, and large-scale multi-use lifestyle developments on behalf of lenders. Jay also has extensive experience in fund formation and real estate related joint ventures.

Practice Areas

Commercial Finance | Corporate & Business | Energy & Environmental | Real Estate |

Education

Suffolk University School of Law, J.D.

Fairfield University, B.S., cum laude

Bar Memberships

Massachusetts

Rhode Island

Personal Note

Outside of his practice, Jay enjoys reading, traveling, and golfing. He also lends his real estate expertise to the Holliston Zoning Board of Appeals, and dedicates time to coaching a number of teams on which his three children play.