Suzanne serves as Partner in the firm's Litigation Practice Group and is based in our Boston office. She represents individuals and corporations in complex commercial litigation before state, federal, and appeals courts. Suzanne advises client concerning compliance and other matters in the employment area and has significant employment litigation experience.

Suzanne also litigates commercial real estate matters, property disputes, closely held business disputes, and other complex business matters. Suzanne's litigation experience includes first-chair trials in both state and federal court, arbitrations, mediations, and significant pre-trial expertise.

Suzanne has impressive experience in state and federal courts, representing individuals and corporations in breach of contract, employment and shareholder disputes, intellectual property matters involving trademarks and copyrights, and litigation – from trial through appeals – regarding land and property ownership.

Suzanne also provides pro bono services to early childhood education organizations, and to the Boston community through the Lawyer's Clearinghouse.

Prior to joining the firm, Suzanne was counsel at Todd & Weld, LLP and an associate at Ropes & Gray, LLP in Boston, Massachusetts.
