

Elizabeth Manchester Is Panelist at Wealth Management Roundtable 2020

Partridge Snow & Hahn counsel Elizabeth Manchester was featured on a panel at a virtual event hosted by Rhode Island Foundation and Washington Trust Wealth Management. The event titled, Wealth Management Roundtable 2020: Estate Planning In A Low-Interest Environment, took place on December 2, 2020.

The virtual panel discussion was designed especially for professional advisors on gifting strategies and investment insights in today's low-interest environment.

Joining Elizabeth on the panel is Kent Gladding, CPA, Vice President and Chief Strategy Officer at Washington Trust Wealth Management. The discussion was moderated by Kimberly McCarthy, Senior Vice President and Chief Tax and Benefits Officer, and Head of Wealth Management Client Services at Washington Trust Wealth Management.

Date Created

December 2, 2020