

Elizabeth Manchester To Speak About Key Policies For Nonprofits In The #MeToo Era

On Tuesday, September 17, Partridge Snow & Hahn attorney Elizabeth Manchester will speak to executives and administrators in the non-profit sector as part of the OceanPoint Insurance executive workshop series.

In her presentation, Key Policies for Nonprofits in the #MeToo Era, Liz will discuss institutional policies and practices that address how to handle the changing relationships between employers and employees in this new #MeToo era.

The workshop is free and is intended for non-profit executives, including CEOs, executive directors, CFOs, HR directors, COOs, and board members. The event is being held at the United Way of Rhode Island in Providence.

For more information or to register for the workshop, please contact David Madara, OceanPoint Insurance, by email at dmadara@oceanpointins.com.
