

2017 Southern New England Go Red For Women

The American Heart Association's Go Red For Women movement seeks to provide women with the tools and resources they need to reduce their risk for heart disease and stroke. Go Red For Women is a national year-long effort with a focus at raising education and awareness around heart disease and stroke.

Date Created

February 17, 2017