

PS&H Counsel Elizabeth Manchester Named to Board of the Taco/The White Family Foundation

Partridge Snow & Hahn counsel, Elizabeth O. Manchester, has been named to the Board of Directors of the Taco/The White Family Foundation.

The Foundation, which focuses on providing meaningful and strategic support to nonprofit organizations whose programs or services use art or artistic elements to enrich and strengthen their community, is recognized as a leader in philanthropy in Rhode Island and Southern Massachusetts. The Foundation is pleased to have Elizabeth's level of expertise on the Board.

As Chair of the Charitable & Nonprofit Practice Group at Partridge Snow & Hahn, Elizabeth's extensive experience focusing on best practices in compliance, charitable gift planning and the implementation of planned and estate-giving strategies for tax-exempt entities will serve the Foundation well.

Learn more about the Taco/The White Family Foundation.

Date Created

January 26, 2021