

PS&H is pleased to announce that David Wittmann has become a Partner of the Firm

“We are thrilled to welcome David to our partnership,” said Managing Partner, David Gilden. “He is an outstanding business lawyer, leader and colleague, and has been successful at creating lasting and loyal relationships with all of the clients he works with.” Gilden continued, “David’s passion for great service to clients, and for being part of our team, is infectious. We are happy to have him on our team.”

Resident in the Firm’s Boston office, David Wittmann is an experienced business lawyer who helps his clients manage risks and grow. He concentrates his practice on corporate finance and mergers and acquisitions transactions, and regularly acts as general outside counsel for clients, addressing their day-to-day business issues. David frequently represents entrepreneurs and technology companies with respect to formation matters, intellectual property protection, contract negotiation and drafting, and capital raising matters (including debt, equity, and SAFE transactions). David also routinely works with investors ranging from independent angels to international venture capital firms. He received his J.D. from Suffolk University Law School, and his B.A. from Ohio University, College of Business.

Date Created

January 1, 2017