

Partridge Snow & Hahn LLP Named One Of The Best Places To Work

June 26, 2013 – Partridge Snow & Hahn LLP is pleased to announce that we have been recognized as one of the Best Places to Work in Rhode Island. “This is a meaningful honor for the Firm. We value the support we receive from our team and the outstanding service they provide to all of our clients,” said Managing Partner, David Gilden. “We strive to live up to the Firm’s Vision Statement, ‘...To enjoy a culture that encourages and rewards teamwork, quality and outstanding service to our clients and makes PS&H a great place to work.’”

Businesses throughout the state were surveyed and judged on their responses to an extensive management report as well as an employee survey conducted by Best Companies Group, an independent research organization based in Harrisburg, PA. The mission of Best Companies Group is to “identify and recognize” places of employment that are leading the way in defining the employee experience of the 21st century.

Date Created

June 26, 2013